

Page 8, Q1. What are some examples of programs and/or training sessions you held on Snapshot Day? (Optional)

1	I taught the Bix Six Strategy to the students. The students did a Dewey Decimal scavenger hut with the netbook computers.	Nov 18, 2011 3:58 PM
2	Selling the Texas Bluebonnet program by showing book trailers and reading Mirror Mirror. How to place requests.	Nov 18, 2011 2:47 PM
3	Introduction to Ticket to Reading Rewards Thomas Edison Media Center Resources - Building a Community of Reader & Writers	Nov 18, 2011 1:06 PM
4	none.	Nov 18, 2011 10:22 AM
5	Texas Bluebonnet Award Book Read Alouds World Book Online Database training	Nov 16, 2011 11:04 AM
6	Instruction on Database useage, especially Culturegrams for 2nd grade "leader" project.	Nov 15, 2011 12:11 PM
7	Tx Bluebonnet Award (ongoing support) Pizza Hut Book It reading program (ongoing support)	Nov 15, 2011 11:10 AM
8	Music appreciation puppet shows for students in K-3 and 4-5 grades sponsored by the Library and Music Department. The puppet show for grades K-3 introduced students to the different types of instruments in an orchestra. The puppet show for grades 4-5 introduced students to different composers and styles of music from around the world.	Nov 13, 2011 11:26 PM
9	This happened to be our : "Dress as your Favorite Book Character Day". We had amazing school-wide participation. Ms. Dora Cotrino dressed as Tacky the Penguin and all of her students were the other penguins. As you may imagine, she had a lot of parental involvement. Also noteworthy was Ms. Stewart's 3rd grade class. Each student dressed as a different book character and gave a presentation about the book. We also had 6 regularly scheduled classes.	Nov 13, 2011 11:59 AM
10	Texas Bluebonnets Readers Are Leaders Read to Succeed	Nov 11, 2011 4:40 PM
11	We had our annual character parade. All Pre-K through 3rd students and teachers as well as administrators dressed up as a character in a book. Music was played and the parade was held in the carpool circle. Students in grades 4 and 5 watched the parade. We had a great turnout of parents and sibblings to watch the parade.	Nov 11, 2011 4:24 PM
12	We had classes that day during all three lunches on how to create a comic strip using an internet website. We did a Google Hangout with 4 other schools across the country to virtually discuss "The Hunger Games." Librarian worked with government class in an election simulation. Librarian created election booth, voter registration cards and decorated part of the library for the election process. Librarian attended several classes in preparation for this and helped teach the overall unit. This included creating a Glogster with major political party information and the general election process as well as instruction in writing speeches.	Nov 11, 2011 4:17 PM
13	NoodleBib Instruction: Creating a Citation, Creating a Note Card Grimm Slamm Promotional presentation to 6th grade English Classes Book Club meetings: 7th	Nov 11, 2011 3:32 PM

Page 8, Q1. What are some examples of programs and/or training sessions you held on Snapshot Day? (Optional)

	grade and 8th grade
14	Teaching sessions - Online Public Access Catalog-How to conduct online searches; locating books within the library; the importance of the Dewey Decimal Classification System; Genres. Literary Elements - Character, Setting, Problem, Solution	Nov 11, 2011 3:32 PM
15	NA	Nov 11, 2011 3:31 PM
16	* I have a student library crew, and I spent part of the day training them to help in the library with shelving and such. * Co-teaching with speech classes and environmental science classes * 5th Grade Lunch Bunch Book Club * Story with the librarian and Watch Dog Dads * Halloween "Spook-Tech-ular" - providing an environment where teachers visit the library to discover all the resources available through the library and technology departments	Nov 11, 2011 3:06 PM
17	I promoted the upcoming book fair with the classes that visited. We watched the promotional DVD, discussed books the students would be looking for, and I reminded them to estimate tax for their purchases.	Nov 11, 2011 3:01 PM
18	NoodleBib Instruction--creating citations and note cards Grimm Slamm/Read it Forward promotional presentations Book Club meetings: 7th grade and 8th grade (2 separate clubs)	Nov 11, 2011 2:52 PM
19	Introduced staff to the new Pk-3 database provided by the district, PebbleGo!	Nov 11, 2011 1:52 PM
20	We had one BI class at the request of faculty from the kinesiology department	Nov 11, 2011 1:50 PM
21	Lesson for 5th graders on how to place holds.	Nov 11, 2011 1:37 PM
22	We discussed scary/spooky stories and the students discussed what would be in their story.	Nov 11, 2011 1:22 PM
23	Moms & Tots program for 2-4 year olds and their caregivers.	Nov 11, 2011 11:59 AM
24	On Snapshot day, all classes were receiving lessons related to our upcoming week for RIF (Reading is Fundamental). Our RIF theme was a self-created "Dia de los Muertos/Day of the Dead" theme. On Snapshot Day, each class visiting the library was having a storytime in which we read a book about this holiday, viewed and discussed a small "ofrenda" or altar in preparation for our RIF activities upcoming the next week. The lessons and stories also integrated with a special project for 3rd grade (a collaboration between 3rd grade teachers, librarian, art teacher, parent support specialist and Austin Children's Museum based on works of Carmen Lomas Garza) "Cuentos de Familia" as we were discussing how families celebrate special holidays.	Nov 11, 2011 11:45 AM
25	Family luncheon in conjunction with the school counselor. How to use a SMART board. Using the TLC to teach how to checkout their own books (teachers) Using new databases supplied by the district (one-on-one)	Nov 11, 2011 10:42 AM
26	Readers are Leaders	Nov 11, 2011 10:06 AM
27	We did two library instruction sessions. We held a Phantom Party with a costume contest. A group of students did a "thriller" flash mob to enliven the	Nov 11, 2011 9:06 AM

Page 8, Q1. What are some examples of programs and/or training sessions you held on Snapshot Day? (Optional)

	party. A campus committee met in the Technology Center.
28	Book Character Costume Day for grades PK-4.	Nov 10, 2011 4:28 PM
29	Pumpkin Decorating Contest was going on, with students bringing their pumpkins in and the judges voting for the winners. Classes scheduled for that day came and worked at the tables, using Encyclopedias to learn about the Human Body as part of a Health Careers focus. After this 20 minute activity, the students checked out books.	Nov 10, 2011 4:27 PM
30	I had a book fair throughout the week and on snapshot day we had a family fitness/bookfair night where we opened the bookfair and also had the coaches give a presentation about being fit and staying healthy.	Nov 10, 2011 3:00 PM
31	Class utilizing the learning area with the librarian regarding using online search engines.	Nov 10, 2011 1:14 PM
32	Scary Stories. Zombie Walk- 45 zombies shambled in.	Nov 10, 2011 12:26 PM
33	Read for the Record, Blue bonnet program, Library volunteers, worked with Pre-k teachers during conference on using the OPAC.	Nov 10, 2011 11:34 AM
34	Had a Halloween storytime for high school students	Nov 10, 2011 8:47 AM
35	Storybook Pumpkin Contest	Nov 9, 2011 7:36 PM
36	The GForce staff from Texas State University was working with our juniors and seniors on college applications and financial aid --- this is ongoing. There were faculty/staff meetings held throughout the day. We encourage student use of our online databases and newspapers as well as provide links to sites such as the Khan Academy. We provide displays and reading incentives relevant to specific holidays (such as Day of the Dead) and participate in the Newspapers in Education program as well as Channel One News.	Nov 9, 2011 3:24 PM
37	Story Time and Arts & Crafts GED Classes Teen Read Week at your Library - Theater Makeup in preparation for Halloween Breast Cancer Awareness Presentation AVANCE Classes - English Language Classes to Spanish speakers	Nov 9, 2011 2:46 PM
38	We taught several different English and History classes about the importance of using credible, accurate, current resources when researching and how to locate these types of resources in print and electronic format through our library catalog and databases. We also planned and collaborated with several teachers to create lessons that integrate class and library curriculum and objectives.	Nov 9, 2011 1:29 PM
39	• Conducted three classes on how to use Noodle Tools. • Library was on the "trick or treat" route for our special needs children.	Nov 8, 2011 6:02 PM
40	Book Character Day	Nov 8, 2011 2:34 PM
41	Two childrens story times; 1 computer class on using the Mango languages database; and family movie night, showing the original Frankenstein movie	Nov 8, 2011 1:51 PM
42	We had a drawing for a Halloween pumpkin. They had to check out a book and	Nov 8, 2011 11:13 AM

Page 8, Q1. What are some examples of programs and/or training sessions you held on Snapshot Day? (Optional)

	take the survey to compete
43	We held a story time during student lunch; the librarian brought a large collection of children's Halloween books to the high school. Students were invited to come by and read some of their favorite stories from childhood. They enjoyed rereading Barney, Arthur, Spider, and Disney Princess storybooks, as well as many lift-the-flap books. The hands-down favorite was "The Haunted Schoolhouse." In keeping with the Halloween theme, all visitors to the library received Smarties candies as a treat because visiting the library is a SMART thing to do.	Nov 8, 2011 10:41 AM
44	Showed classes of students how to use the database for literary criticism Author Visit-Ellen Leventhal Going over BigSix resources with an ELA and Social Studies teachers Using Wordle.com to demonstrate character analysis Book trailer basics were taught to 4th graders including how to use a storyboard	Nov 8, 2011 9:46 AM
45	Showed students how to access library blog. Read ghostly tales and special treats	Nov 7, 2011 2:47 PM
46	Whole school participated in "To Think That I Saw It On Edmondson Street" activities most of the day with a Book Character Parade finale around the high school football next door to their school. Supports the yearly theme of Hocus Pocus Reading Is Our Focus	Nov 7, 2011 1:21 PM
47	Interactive Webinar/WebConference on Bats through Region X.	Nov 7, 2011 1:08 PM
48	4th grade lesson using Storybird to create original stories and to use with their epals as progressive stories.	Nov 7, 2011 12:54 PM
49	Trained library helpers on "Order in the Library 4.0" to help them shelve book better.	Nov 7, 2011 12:32 PM
50	2nd grade GT group research on Civil War Bluebonnet Program Review Reading Together Training session	Nov 7, 2011 12:27 PM
51	Blogging class with 5th graders Book club Reading program with 2nd graders	Nov 7, 2011 12:22 PM
52	Locate and edit patron record Books on hold Finding books in catalog at other schools Access iPhone app for LS2 and find a book.	Nov 7, 2011 12:08 PM
53	Reading Together Tutoring	Nov 7, 2011 11:58 AM
54	We had "Fright Delight" during school for all the 5th grade, 4th grade, and 2nd grade classes. We turned down the lights and the librarian shared spooky stories and an online virtual reality haunted house. The Trunk or Treat was a school wide activity that the library had a car in. I talked to parents and told them about the parent library card.	Nov 7, 2011 11:40 AM
55	Worked with 5th grade students on spelling bee material and how to use online dictionary to look up word meanings.	Nov 7, 2011 11:28 AM
56	Reading program - 117 reading logs turned in	Nov 7, 2011 11:24 AM
57	A fourth grade class came in to work on a technology project in which students	Nov 7, 2011 11:01 AM

Page 8, Q1. What are some examples of programs and/or training sessions you held on Snapshot Day? (Optional)

	create a book trailer or Blabberize video either promoting their book or describing character traits of a character from a novel they are currently reading in their classroom. A kindergarten class came in for a story time in which we read Bats at the Library. We also viewed some live bats using a web cam via a website. Two third grade classes came in for poetry lessons.
58	Training: Easybib.com Programs: 5th Grade Book club	Nov 7, 2011 10:51 AM
59	4th grade GT students: Compare/contrast info. gleaned from folktales to factual info found in informational text.	Nov 7, 2011 10:40 AM
60	5th grade - NetTrekker database - revolutionary war heroes 2nd grade - Lessons comparing NF/Fiction books - parts & locations. instruction with technology & part 2 - with game only	Nov 7, 2011 10:30 AM
61	After-school reading club with 50 students, grade 3-5th, and early morning book club for 4th/5th graders	Nov 7, 2011 8:44 AM
62	I held a Reading Together Training with 4th and 2nd grade students. We had 10 4th grade tutors who were traing 10 2nd grade tutees on how to read. I held a class for two 1st grade classes. The lesson was on Informational Text. I used a PowerPoint to demonstrate an Informational Text book on Spiders. We looked at the table of contents, noted the highlighted words, looked at illustrations and captions, located the glossary and index. Then gave an Informamntional Presentation on spiders. Held a class for 2 Kinder classes on fables. Used a PowerPoint, utilized hyperlinks to connect to sites where students could hear fables being read. Utilized NetTrekker to find resources.	Nov 7, 2011 8:37 AM
63	1. Orientation for THS databasxes and library resources to 3 freshman classes. 2. supported an on going Jr. English research project helping students with refining searches and creating citations. 3. during lunch (virtually everyday) I use point of need teachable moments to instruct students about Wikipedia. I never tell them not to use it, but rather, use it wisely. I show them how to check history for editing. Most of them are very surprised that Wikipedia can be changed. I then show them resources available through the school. Finally I leave it to them to decide which tool to use. I do have a social studies teacher who recommends her students use Wikipedia as a sole source.	Nov 4, 2011 3:54 PM
64	Librarian presented book video trailers about books set in foreign countries to 12th grade English classes. Students selected a book to read that would later include research using library databases to find articles about current events from the country where their book was set.	Nov 4, 2011 1:35 PM
65	Fusion Page Training Blogging Discussed New book display. Teaching students how to put pictures on a word document and copyright.	Nov 4, 2011 1:31 PM
66	Data base use and citation	Nov 4, 2011 11:23 AM
67	Toddler story time Pre-school story time French class E-Reader Class Basic Computer Class "Art Day" field trip for 275 3rd graders from the local ISD	Nov 4, 2011 9:33 AM
68	Book club during each of three lunch periods. Book talking during 6 periods with classes that came through. Working with a teacher in the library classroom using	Nov 4, 2011 8:16 AM software for his physics classes.

Page 8, Q1. What are some examples of programs and/or training sessions you held on Snapshot Day? (Optional)

69	This day was a typical Thursday at the Benfer Library. We did not have any special activities planned for the day—just regular library classes and come & go patrons. 4th grade instruction/booktalks/checkout 1st grade instruction/booktalks/checkout Early morning checkout Student teacher training	Nov 4, 2011 6:32 AM
70	I trained classes who came in for check-out on how to use the Destiny Quest feature in our cataloging system.	Nov 3, 2011 10:36 AM
71	There's a body in the library - Solve the Crime. Follow the Clues. <Students learn to use various aspects of library by following the clues and solving the case.>	Nov 2, 2011 3:26 PM
72	Brazoria Library had a pumpkin decorating contest. We had seven pumpkins decorated. A local restaurant donated a personal pan pizza to all who participated.	Nov 2, 2011 2:18 PM
73	Anime club met today after school. We meet twice each week so that students may play anime card games or learn to draw anime.	Nov 2, 2011 11:40 AM
74	Life skills class came in for read-aloud and book selection. Six classrooms participated in spooky stories storytelling.	Nov 2, 2011 11:24 AM
75	How to use Ebsco	Nov 2, 2011 8:55 AM
76	I trained the second graders and reviewed the third graders on using the OPAC system and differentiating between fiction and non-fiction in content and spine labels. For fourth and fifth grade we used World Book online or EBSCO to begin research.	Nov 1, 2011 1:54 PM
77	We had a Storybook Pumpkin Decorating contest where 169 families participated by decorating a pumpkin like their favorite storybook character. We do an ongoing reading incentive program where students in grades K-2 read a picture book or a chapter in a chapter book each night, and students in grades 3-5 read 40 minutes each night. Students who turn in their reading log at the end of the month receive a prize from the library. We also have a Texas Bluebonnet reading program for students in grades 3-5, where if they read 5 of the Texas Bluebonnet books, they will vote in January; for 10 books they receive a blue prize; and for 15 books they attend a blue party.	Nov 1, 2011 11:24 AM
78	1) Data base searching instructional class. 2) Win a fabulous fall gift basket contest. 3) How to access and use video streaming in the classroom.	Nov 1, 2011 10:55 AM
79	Students: We had nine classes, a life skills class play, many staff and parents, birthday celebrations, before and after school checkout, morning announcements with all the science fair participants, many mentor readers, and many students turning in their pirate challenges & library lotto, and a few making Voki booktalks. Adults: We had team teaching, requests for resources, time sign-up for video network showing, I served as science fair judge, Scholastic Book Fair phone conversation during my lunch time, helped out with students that don't do Halloween, many parent checkouts, I proctored a test for Texas Tech student, had a Delany sales lady after school, LCD repair techs, maintenance	Nov 1, 2011 10:46 AM

Page 8, Q1. What are some examples of programs and/or training sessions you held on Snapshot Day? (Optional)

	man, and head custodian all dropped in, and wrote a Laura Bush grant with the principal.
80	I taught a lesson on vocabulary and using context clues to understand the new or unknow word.	Nov 1, 2011 10:19 AM
81	Assistance with logging on to the computer	Nov 1, 2011 9:33 AM
82	Storytelling History of Halloween "Scary stories" read Using the internet-info on Halloween	Nov 1, 2011 9:11 AM
83	1. NanoWrimo kick off. 2. Assisting students on creating a user name for their NanoWrimo account. 3. Assisting with self-check out.	Nov 1, 2011 9:11 AM
84	Using the catalog and databases.	Nov 1, 2011 7:38 AM
85	Classroom library instruction Love Your Library Volunteers after school program Wee Mail Postal Service after school program	Nov 1, 2011 7:20 AM
86	Family Library Night from 5-7	Nov 1, 2011 6:17 AM
87	Academic Integrity assembly for middle school students - I authored the school wide Academic Integrity policy. Each year we orient new students to the policy, citing examples of violations and what they can do to be examples of integrity throughout their lives. The assembly is continued for high school students the next day. High School book club- 26 students attend this weekly lunchtime event. The first selections were ARCs brought back from ALA - students read and then recommended (or not) the books to be added to the Rangel library for what reason and for what age level	Oct 31, 2011 5:02 PM
88	District Superintendent performed Storytime for 2 classes of 2nd grade. JrHi Drama classes performed Storytimes for 8 selected classes - Kinder, 1st, 3rd.	Oct 31, 2011 4:18 PM
89	My fourth grade students made a constellation can with 12 different constellation templates. These will be used to identify the shapes of some of the constellations we will be looking at when the planetarium is in use in the library. My fifth grade students made constellation star wheels to have and use when the go the Collin County Adventure Camp. This will help them to identify and find the various constellations at any given time of the year. My kindergarten, first, second, and third grade classes were read various stories that had a spooky theme since this was Halloween.	Oct 31, 2011 4:09 PM
90	All fifth grade students received instruction relating to care and cautions for laptop computers as well as a review of directions for how to access school databases and Microsoft Word using the laptops. Fifth grade teachers are preparing to teach utilizing classroom wikis the librarian has set up in collaboration with the teachers.	Oct 31, 2011 3:48 PM
91	We had our before school Fifth Grade Volunteer Readers today. These fifth grade students go to the cafeteria and choose one kindergarten student from each of our five kindergarten classes. The fifth grade volunteers bring the kindergarten students to the library and read to them for 15 minutes before the school day starts.	Oct 31, 2011 3:45 PM

Page 8, Q1. What are some examples of programs and/or training sessions you held on Snapshot Day? (Optional)

92	1. The online catalog to use on and off campus. 2. Combining reading and writing using district curriculum. 3. Databases.	Oct 31, 2011 3:09 PM
93	Regular teaching day	Oct 31, 2011 2:43 PM
94	Flashlight Reading in the library Big 6 research lessons	Oct 31, 2011 2:08 PM
95	Spanish classes setting up Day of the Dead (Dia de los Muertos) displays.	Oct 31, 2011 2:06 PM
96	Dallas ISD library, Dallink, training for 1st - 3rd grade students. Discuss the 11-11-11-11-11 program with administration and staff.	Oct 31, 2011 1:30 PM
97	First grade and second grade students were taught how to use the self checkout circulation desk.	Oct 31, 2011 1:00 PM
98	Read-a-loud three different books with Smart Board lessons connected to the correlate with classroom objectives/TEKS/and our students population needs. Smart Board training for teachers using World Book's Science Power/ Dramatic Learning/ and Early World of Learning in the library	Oct 31, 2011 12:30 PM
99	We had Bruce Coville visit with the 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students.	Oct 31, 2011 11:56 AM
100	Bluebonnet reading and discussion. Use of the OPAC. Reminders about Emergency Drills.	Oct 31, 2011 11:17 AM
101	We had a Family Library Night...families came and checked out extra books to read at home. Our Fourth Grade teachers did a Readers Theatre presentation. Pictures of our families were taken for our photo gallery wall.	Oct 31, 2011 11:08 AM
102	Check out a book and get a treat day.	Oct 31, 2011 10:51 AM
103	Storytime program at 10am. for ages Pre-K to 3 yrs. old. Friends of the Library meeting at 7 pm.	Oct 31, 2011 10:03 AM
104	Book Clubs Bluebonnet Books Making Meaning Reading Counts How to use Databases How to use the Catalog Learning about Historical Fiction Website Evaluation	Oct 31, 2011 8:32 AM
105	In order to promote literacy, the library and the Textpert's committee sponsored a book swap after school. Students came dressed as their favorite book character. We had a variety of literacy related activities (e.g., poster making contest, costume contest, book review illustrations) in addition to food, music, and lots of books for the exchanges.	Oct 29, 2011 12:59 PM
106	Demonstration of World Book online for 2nd grade so they can research inventors. Kindergarten lesson on compare/contrast versions of the Gingerbread Man.	Oct 28, 2011 2:29 PM
107	Card games at lunch. Free time in the morning. Faculty lunch in the afternoon. ELA online textbook training. Google email training. Visit from Actor Jared Padalecki of The Gilmore Girls and Supernatural.	Oct 28, 2011 10:33 AM
108	Book Club Meeting	Oct 28, 2011 9:20 AM

Page 8, Q1. What are some examples of programs and/or training sessions you held on Snapshot Day? (Optional)

109	Students "pictured it" on a bookmark--they designed their own. We did it in conjunction with Teen Read Week, so we had a "Get Caught Reading" drawing (teachers gave kids tickets when they were caught reading for fun, and we drew names for prizes daily), we had an estimation candy jar (they guessed every time they checked out a book), we had a fine amnesty day--they had to give me their best super model pose to have fines cleared (in keeping with the "Picture It" theme), and they could vote on their favorite YA novel.	Oct 28, 2011 8:41 AM
110	Toddler Time - for 2 year olds features stories, puppets, poems and songs. Teen Advisory Panel (TAP) - a group of 12-18 year olds interested in making the Library a more teen-friendly place. Teens discuss future programs, projects, and activities at monthly meetings. Members can earn valuable service hours and letters of recommendation...and have fun!	Oct 27, 2011 3:56 PM
111	Identify the continents and label on a map. Put the continents in alphabetical order.	Oct 27, 2011 3:20 PM
112	Library literacy -- fiction vs. non-fiction for 1st graders; Video conference -- Fairy Tale retellings / different point of view -- 4th grade; 2X2 Read Aloud with pre-k and kinder; Bluebonnet Read Aloud with 3rd and 5th grades;	Oct 27, 2011 12:11 PM
113	Bluebonnet Lunch Bunch--students eat lunch in the library while listening to Bluebonnet books SMART Table usage for K-3 2x2 preview for K-3 Database usage for faculty Library Helper program for 5th graders	Oct 26, 2011 1:08 PM
114	How to use the OPAC How to use AR bookfind	Oct 26, 2011 9:20 AM
115	Database instruction for 8th grade research	Oct 26, 2011 8:25 AM
116	We had several going on: 1. It was "Picture it" day--we took pictures of the students holding books up in front of a read poster. 2. Any book they checked out that day, they were included in a raffle drawing for books, t-shirts, and other fun items. 3. They could use their math skills to estimate how many candy corns were in a jar--closest won the the candy at the end of the week.	Oct 25, 2011 9:20 AM
117	Liquid Nitrogen Demonstration from the Science department	Oct 24, 2011 12:49 PM
118	Book Swap where students and parents had donated books approx. 1000 books. Students and teachers were able to choose a free book to take home.	Oct 24, 2011 12:03 PM
119	Student check out, story time for PreK and K, book club	Oct 24, 2011 9:58 AM
120	Puppet Shows 1. for PreK and Kindergarten - Frog and Toad: The Lost Button Story - with finger puppets - followed by comprehension questions 2. for 1st-4th grades - Wolf and Sheep: a Mexican Folktale - hand puppets - followed by higher level questioning	Oct 18, 2011 10:18 AM
121	Introduction to database searches and advance searches. Use of indices to find information on topic. Discussion of reserved book carts.	Oct 17, 2011 1:19 PM
122	We held student return/check-out for a sophomore ELA class, a Senior Epidemiology class held a research session using Ebsco to find information for a paper they are writing, a journalism/pblications teacher scheduled time in the	Oct 17, 2011 9:22 AM

Page 8, Q1. What are some examples of programs and/or training sessions you held on Snapshot Day? (Optional)

library for next week, An annual ARD meeting for a Special Ed student was held in a conference room in the library and an AIM/attendance program for students and parents was held in the library alcove to provide information to families at our school.

123	The BEST activity of the day...possibly of the school year so far...was the Distance Learning session our Junior ROTC and girls' basketball team had with the Pro Football Hall of Fame. We were chosen to be an interactive campus, so our students got to talk to Hall of Famer Joe DeLamielleure! Because the session cost some of the students their lunch period, we treated the students to a tailgate party with pizza and nachos and other Super Bowl-type foods	Oct 14, 2011 9:14 AM
124	The school based committee, called SBIC, met in the library and discussed goals and programs for the school. The librarian had a training session for a group of students using Audacity software.	Oct 12, 2011 2:50 PM
125	In a collaborative activity, students from an ELA classroom used library computers in order to publish their essays. We also held book club after school.	Oct 12, 2011 9:50 AM
126	1. Freshmen orientation 2. Database training	Oct 5, 2011 10:05 AM